Lantern Trail

A huge thank you to everyone that came to our Lantern Trail last month. It was wonderful to receive so much support and lovely feedback from you all.

The grand total raised was £375.47 which is fantastic. Watch this space for next years plans!

KS2 Indoor Athletics

On Monday, Atlas Sports are coming to school to host an Indoor Athletics Event. Please send all KS2 children in wearing PE Kit. Thank you.

Value Certificates

Year Reception

Jesse G for being a wonderful reader and singer by reading lots of tricky words in phonics and singing beautifully in our Nativity rehearsals.

Year 1

Oakley for being a wonderful writer by working really hard on his warning tale. His stamina for writing is really improving.

Year 2

Alice has shown the value of responsibility by listening to the teaching and using the whole line when writing her story.

Year 3

Nayla for being a wonderful learner by always working her hardest, joining in with discussions and always being the best version of herself.

Year 4

Harry for being a wonderful reader by working hard in guided reading to find the answers in the text.

Year 5

Alisha has shown the value of responsibility by helping other children with maths and assisting the teacher politely.

Year 6

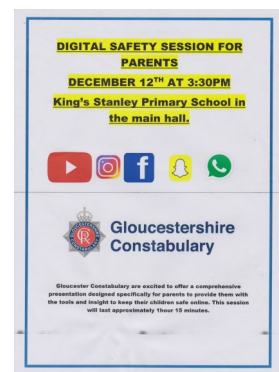

Declan for being a wonderful geographer by finding out lots of facts about the first explorers to reach the South Pole and being really enthusiastic.

Digital Safety Session

We are hosting another Digital Safety session from Gloucestershire Constabulary.

This will be held in the hall at 3.30pm. The session is for KS2 parents and children and is really informative. You are welcome to attend again if you came last year.

If you have siblings in KS1, Mrs Millward will be running a stay & play session if childcare is needed.
